

Coordinating national Open Science efforts across Austria, Belgium, France Germany and Italy, ensuring their contribution and readiness for the implementation of EOOSC

WHO BENEFITS

End Users

- ★ Data users such as individual researchers, scientific communities, research infrastructures, education establishments, enterprises, citizen scientists.

Implementers

- ★ Data providers such as research infrastructures, scientific communities, repository managers, universities.
- ★ Decision makers at the national and international level, the EOOSC partnership and EOOSC-related initiatives, research funding agencies and SDOs.

Key Results & contributions to EOSC

- ★ A National Initiatives Survey with 680+ responding organisations;
- ★ Transnational Services via a policy and legal framework to coordinate national initiatives;
- ★ FAIR Data Services to reduce technical, societal and organisational barriers to data sharing;
- ★ Horizontal Data Storage and Computing Services, vital for the EOSC infrastructure;
- ★ 9 Use Cases for thematic scientific communities;
- ★ Dissemination, Outreach & Community Building 3000 contacts in database.

EOSC-Pillar Resources

Ambassadors Programme

RDM Training and Support Catalogue

Legal compliance guidelines checklist

FINAL
CONFERENCE 25-26-27
October 2022

Registrations open in June
SAVE THE DATE!

EOSC-PILLAR CONSORTIUM

Join the EOSC-PILLAR Network
eosc-pillar.eu/join

Follow us on our Social channels

@EoscPillar company/eosc-pillar

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No. 857650.